- Requirements for Women in Transition: You must meet the definition of a woman in transition, namely you have graduated from high school at least three years previously, and striving to be economically independent through higher education.

SELECTION PROCESS

The Scholarship Committee of the AAUW Manatee County Branch will screen all applicants including a review of the application and an interview of selected applicants, as deemed necessary by the committee. The committee will select recipients at its sole discretion and may designate alternate recipients in the event that the chosen recipient is unable to use the scholarship. The committee may decide not to award scholarships for a given year. The Scholarship Committee and the Budget Committee, in consultation with other committees, annually determine the value of all scholarships. Selected recipients will be notified by April 24th. All awards will be paid directly to the school for tuition expenses only and will be divided evenly between Fall and Spring terms.

All applicants will be considered without regard to race, creed, or national origin.
